DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-12, drawn to a method and apparatus for removing contaminants including a pair of electrodes wherein the spacing between the plates is non-uniform and the electrodes are oriented orthogonal to the inlet and outlet ports so that the electrodes interleave to define a flow path, classified in class 204, subclass 554.
 - II. Claims 13-30, drawn to a method and apparatus for removing contaminants including a plurality of contaminant separation sectors each including a pair of electrodes wherein the spacing between the plates is uniform and the sectors are oriented along planes and in distinct layers, classified in class 204, subclass 554
 - III. Claims 31-36, drawn to a method for removing contaminants including providing a magnetic field generator and providing a plurality of electrodes with spaced-apart plates, classified in class 204, subclass 557

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and III are related as combination and subcombination.

Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the specifics of the subcombination as recited in claims 1-12 are not required in combination claims 31-36. The subcombination has separate utility such as use by itself.

3. Inventions II and III are related as combination and subcombination.

Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the specifics of the subcombination as recited in claims 13-30 are not recited in combinations claims 31-36. The subcombination has separate utility such as use by itself.

4. Inventions I and II are distinct subcombinations with different structures and are separately usable.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
